Ext. Reports

I contacted the loss prevention officer, Molly Morer, who advised the following;

After completing a video review, she observed a thin black male with dreads walk into the store at approximately 1152 hours. He proceeds to the small appliance department and selects an iRobot vacuum valued at $499.99. He proceeds to the front of the store and passes all points of sales without attempting to pay. He left the businesses in an unidentified vehicle.

At approximately 1200 hours, another black male enters the property eight minutes after the first suspect. He too proceeds to the small appliance department and selects a Dyson vacuum valued at $599.99. He proceeds to the front of the store and passes all points of sales without attempting to pay. He left the businesses in an unidentified vehicle separate from the first suspect.

Molly advised the Las Vegas and Stephanie Target stores have been victims of theft with same to suspects stealing high priced appliance items.

Molly completed a written witness statement and a copy of the video surveillance footage of the crime. The DVD was

Freedom of Information Report

Ext. Reports

Upon arrival we made contact with the Asset Protection Manager, later identified as Molly Morer DOB advised the following:

A black male about 30-40 years old in black walked into the store at about 1747 hours and proceeded to the vacuum display, where he selected two IRobot vacuums valued at $399.99 ea and passed all points of payment exiting the store at about 1751 hours with both vacuums ($799.98).

Molly stated that she was able to later determine from video surveillance that he male walked to a parked black Audi 4dr sedan and drove away.

Molly also advised that this same suspect was involved in the same type of theft under HPD DR# 19-15295.

Molly provided me with a witness statement and a copy of the video surveillance that I later impounded into digital evidence at the West Substation.

At this time there is no further suspect information. I am requesting this case be closed pending further investigative leads.

Due to this suspect being involved in multiple thefts known to the victim, I am requesting this case be CC to Property for review.
